```
        Am       E7        Am-4         Am   Fmaj7  C    E7
It was down at old Joe's bar room  At the corner by the square
        Am     E7        Am    Am/G      Fmaj7 E7        Am-4
They were serving drinks as usual     And the usual crowd was there
```

```
        Am       E7        Am-4          Am         Fmaj7    C    E7
On my left stood big Joe MacKennedy  His eyes were bloodshot red
        Am            E7        Am      Am/G
And as he looked at the gang around him
    Fmaj7            E7        Am-4
These were the very words he said.
```

        Am       E7        Am-4       Am   Fmaj7  C    E7
I went down to St. James Infirmary  I saw my baby there
        Am           E7        Am   Am/G   Fmaj7       E7     Am-4
Stretched out on a long, white table       so young   so cold   so fair

```
Am           E7        Am-4    Am         Fmaj7         C    E7
  Seventeen coal-black horses  Hitched to a rubber-tied hack
Am         E7            Am     Am/G
Seven girls goin' to the graveyard
    Fmaj7              E7    Am-4
Only six of them are coming back
```

```
        Am        E7        Am-4       Am    Fmaj7   C    E7
Let her go. Let her go, God bless her  Wherever she may be
        Am        E7        Am    Am/G
She may search this wide world over
        Fmaj7        E7     Am-4
And never find another man like me
```

```
 Am        E7        Am-4            Am       Fmaj7  C   E7
  When I die just bury me   In my high-top Stetson hat
        Am                 E7            Am      Am/G
Place a twenty-dollar gold piece on my watch chain
         Fmaj7        E7          Am-4
To let the Lord know I died standing pat

```
       Am          E7            Am-4
I want six crap-shooters for my pallbearers
  Am              Fmaj7        C   E7
A  Chorus girl to sing me a song
        Am            E7            Am   Am/G
Place a jazz band on my hearse wagon
   Fmaj7          E7    Am-4
To raise hell as we roll along
```

```
Am              E7         Am-4    Am   Fmaj7          C   E7
  Now that you've heard my story  I'll take another shot of booze
        Am       E7       Am     Am/G
  And if anyone here should ask you
Fmaj7        E7          Am-4
  I've got the gambler's blues
```
